

Arizona LGBTQIA+ Archives

For Immediate Release, November 18, 2020

Tucson LGBTQIA+ Archives Tucson, Arizona

Tucson Gay Museum, Tucson Gay LGBTQ+ Museum & Library, Tucson LGBTQ+ Museum Become Arizona LGBTQIA+ Archives

TUCSON, Arizona - Following an ever expanding growth in LGBTQIA+ historical archives first began in the summer of 1967, the current archives tens of thousands of statewide and other Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Queer Intersex Asexual + original one of a kind archives collections have been renamed the Arizona LGBTQIA+ Archives.

The focus of the Arizona LGBTQIA+ Archives and its mission is the collection, preservation, and digital virtual access of historical related Arizona LGBTQIA+ photographs, manuscripts, event posters, LGBTQIA+ related publications, journals & diaries, documentaries, audio tapes, Super 8 & 35mm Films, Micro Film, VHS-Beta-CD-DVD recordings of events, audio sound recordings, interviews, art works, LGBTQIA+ Events T-Shirts & Memorabilia along with other LGBTQIA+ Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Queer Intersex Asexual+ items for inclusion into the permanent Arizona LGBTQIA+ Archives®© for their preservation and access for current and future generations.

Collecting and maintaining the many individual stories, papers, photographs, videos, oral histories, home movies, artwork, clothing items, and other distinct various forms of historical records reflecting many hundreds of years of combined generations insights and knowledges.

Beginning in the summer of 1967 and continuing through to the 2020's, the efforts goals are making available all archives digitally and accessible worldwide as a continuation of its online efforts began in 2000's as the world's first internet LGBTQIA+ all virtual museum and archives in the world.

The Arizona LGBTQIA+ Archives is a not for profit historical preservation organization dedicated to the preservation and protection of LGBTQIA+ history for current and future generations.

ArizonaLGBTQIAArchives.org